Is Your Family Reading "Worth While?"

So much of current reading is merely entertaining at best that the question naturally arises, Is it worth while? Your sons and daughters are bound to read something. They hunger for stories which take them into the other half of the world—the world of adventure, of valor, of fortune-making. The problem is to give them such reading without putting into their hands the literature that is either silly or demoralizing. The editors of The Youth's Companion believe that a periodical can be made entertaining and yet "worth while," and The Companion is conducted on that theory. And that is one reason why more than half a million American families read it. The paper is safe, but not dull. Its tales of adventure illustrate the advantages of fortitude and self-reliance. Its stories of character lay stress on the truth that right conduct is never a mistake.

Every new subscriber will find it of special advantage to send at once the $1.75 for the new 1910 Volume. Not only does he get the beautiful "Venetian" Calendar for 1910, lithographed in thirteen colors and gold, but all the issues of The Companion for the remaining weeks of 1909 from the time the subscription is received.

How to Cure a Cold

Be as careful as you can, you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectorations, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. For sale by all druggists.

GRACEFUL ACT OF GENTLEMAN

Physician's Delicate Manner of Refusing Poor Patient's Act of Self-Sacrifice.

Dr. Robert Glynn-Clobery, a delightful old character described in "Reminiscences of Cambridge," was a fellow of King's college, where he resided. During a long illness he attended a poor man, of whose family party a pert, talkative magpie made one, and as the patient observed that Dr. Glynn-Clobery always, when paying a visit, had some joke with the bird, he thought that perhaps the doctor might like to possess it. Accordingly, when the poor man was well again, with overflowing gratitude, but with no money to pay a bill, he thought he could do no better than make his kind friend a present of the magpie; and so the prisoner in its cage was conveyed to his rooms in King's college.

The bearer met with a kind reception, but was desired to carry the bird back with him.

"I cannot," said the doctor, "take so good care of it as can you; but I shall consider it mine, and I entrust it to you to keep for me; and as long as it lives I will pay you half a crown weekly for its maintenance."—Youth's Companion.

STEAMBOAT CELEBRATIONS.

So gradual was the extension of steam navigation in this country that it has been figured out that if the communities particularly benefited by it are so disposed, celebrations of the "first steamboat" can be continued until 1939. Pittsburgh, Pa., may lead off in 1911 with the centennial of the launching of the first steam vessel put in service west of the Alleghenies. New Orleans, Oswego, Natchez and finally St. Louis and Chicago can continue the series of centennials. In fact, if the world is centennial-minded and has not lost its interest in the history and romance of the steamship, the celebrations can be kept up practically another century. As it is the way of the world, however, to lose interest almost as rapidly as it acquires it, it is probable that observances will be limited to the larger cities and to incidents easily lending themselves to spectacular representation.

A SEASIDE DIALOGUE.

He (feeling his way)—I—I wish we were good friends enough for you to call me by my first name.

She (helping him along)—Oh, your last name is good enough for me!

BEATING MRS. LOT.

"It was not so very wonderful that when Lot's wife looked back she turned into a pillar of salt."

"Not a very wonderful thing to have happened in the age of miracles, perhaps, but nothing so wonderful happens in these prosaic days."

"Oh, I don't know; we were going out Main street last evening and when my chauffeur looked back he turned into a telegraph pole."—Houston Post.

BOYVILLE DIPLOMACY.

Mother—When I gave each of you boys an orange, Johnnie, you said you would not eat yours before dinner and you, Arthur, said the same. Have you deceived me?

Johnnie—No, ma; we didn't eat our own oranges. I ate Arthur's and he ate mine.

Well Known Hotel Keeper Uses and Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I take pleasure in saying that I have kept Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family medicine chest for about fifteen years, and have always had satisfactory results from its use. I have administered it to a great many traveling men who were suffering from troubles for which it is recommended, and have never failed to relieve them," says J. C. Jenkins, of Glasgow, Ky. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

MONUMENTAL TALKS.

The agent for non-resident firms tells you what bargains he is furnishing in monuments: how in some way he is saving a deal of freight selling work a wholesale, owning large manufacturing plants, and possibly owns a quarry or two.

But possibly he forgets to tell you what commission or salary he is getting for selling work, what his traveling expenses are per month; also that he would be of no use to the firm he works for unless he made them a profit in addition to these extra expenses; that in any saving of freight or some other expense it is the local dealer who has the advantage; that the best satisfaction and best terms in buying monuments are obtained from buying direct from some reliable dealer and not through agents; that the best work is not obtained from the "cheap John" talker, and cheap work is dear at any price.

We do not employ agents. Cramer's monuments are dependable in every way. Give us a chance to show you what he can do, then if for any reason you do not think to you best interests to patronize the home dealer we will be glad to give you the names of other reliable dealers. It is not necessary to buy through agents and pay the extra salary or commission.
